Parliament to convene on the 4th, 5th and 6th next week - Committee on Parliamentary Business decides

Date : 30-06-2022

- The adjournment debate on the 'prevailing situation in the country' to be held on the 6th

Parliament is scheduled to meet on the 4th, 5th and 6th of next week.

This was decided at the Committee on Parliamentary Business held this morning under the chairmanship of Hon. Mahinda Yapa Abeywardana, Speaker of Parliament.

On the 4th, from 10.00 am to 3.30 pm, the entire time is allotted for 50 Questions for Oral Answers that could not be taken up in Parliament previously due to various reasons.

Furthermore, Parliament is scheduled to convene on the 5th of July at 10.00 am. Accordingly, Regulations under the Foreign Exchange Act, no. 12 of 2017, Two Orders under the Sri Lanka Export Development Act No. 40 of 1979 published under the Gazette Extraordinary No. 2270/20 and 2280/32, Resolution under the Custom ordinance, Resolutions under Section 8 of the Appropriation Act No. 7 of 2020 are scheduled to be approved following debate.

Furthermore, Six Orders under Special Commodity Levy Act, No. 48 of 2007 and Two Regulations under the Imports and Exports Control Act, No. 01 of 1969 published under the Gazette Extraordinary Nos. 2282/21 and 2282/22 are also scheduled to be approved following debate on the same day.

Thereafter, time has been allotted from 4.30 pm to 4.50 pm for Questions at the Adjournment Time and from 4.50 pm to 5.30 pm it has been decided to debate the Motion at the Adjournment Time brough by the Government.

Furthermore, on July 6th from 10.00 am to 10.30 am, time has been allotted to take up Prime Minister’s Questions. It was then decided to debate the Adjournment Motion brough by the Opposition until 4.30 pm on the "prevailing situation in the country".

Furthermore, due to the existing challenges, attention has been drawn at holding committee meetings online on days when the Parliament is not in session, and thus, it was decided to take necessary further actions.
