and emergency certificates.

5. (1) The duration of validity of a passport shall be a period not exceeding five years. The competent authority may from time to time renew the validity of such passport for a further period not exceeding five years, so however that the total period of validity of such passport shall not exceed ten years from the date of its issue.

(2) The duration of validity of an emergency certificate shall be a period not exceeding two years. The competent authority may from time to time renew the validity of such emergency certificate for a further period not exceeding two years from the date of expiry of such certificate.

(3) The competent authority, in fixing the duration of validity of such passport or emergency certificate or renewal thereof, shall have regard to the requirements and circumstances of each case.”

3. Section 9 of the principal enactment is hereby repealed and the following new section substituted therefor:—

Replacement of section 9 of the principal enactment.

“Fees for the issue and renewal of
