“ Appeals on a question of law to the Supreme Court.

138A. (1) The decision of the Board shall be final:

Provided that either the appellant or the Commissioner may make an application requiring the Board to state a case on a question of law for the opinion of the Supreme Court. Such application shall not be entertained unless it is made in writing and delivered to the Clerk to the Board, together with a fee of fifty rupees, within one month of the date of the Board’s decision. If the decision of the Board shall be notified to the Commissioner or to the appellant in writing, the date of the decision, for the purposes of determining the period within which either of such persons may require a case to be stated, shall be the date of the communication by which the decision is notified to him.

(2) The stated case shall set forth the facts, the decision of the Board, and the amount of the business turnover tax in dispute where such amount exceeds five thousand rupees, and the party requiring it shall transmit the case, when stated and signed, to the Supreme Court within fourteen days after receiving the same.

(3) For the purpose of the application of the provisions of the Stamp Ordinance—

(a) all proceedings before the Supreme Court on any case stated under this section or incidental to the hearing, determination or disposal of any such case, shall be deemed to be civil proceedings before the Supreme Court of the value of five thousand rupees, or of such greater amount as may be set forth by the Board under sub-section (2) as the amount of the business turnover tax in dispute;

(b) every such case stated shall, together with all books, documents and papers annexed thereto by the Board, be deemed to be a single exhibit in civil proceedings before the Supreme Court; and

(c) the Commissioner, if he is the appellant, shall be deemed to be a Government officer suing, or if he is the respondent to the appeal, a Government officer being sued, in a suit virtute officii.

(4) At or before the time when he transmits the stated case to the Supreme Court, the party requiring it shall send to the other party notice in writing of the fact that the case has been stated on his application and shall supply him with a copy of the stated case.

(5) Any two or more Judges of the Supreme Court may cause a stated case to be sent back for amendment, and thereupon the case shall be amended accordingly.

(6) Any two or more Judges of the Supreme Court shall hear and determine any question of law arising on the stated case and may in accordance with the decision of the court upon such question confirm, reduce, increase, or annul the assessment determined by the Board, or may remit the case to the Board with the opinion of the court thereon. Where a case is so remitted by the court, the Board shall revise the assessment as the opinion of the court may require.

(7) In any proceedings before the Supreme Court under this section, the court may make such order in regard to costs in the Supreme Court and in regard to the sum paid under sub-section (1) as to the court may seem fit.

(8) For the purpose of enabling the Commissioner or any other party to appeal to Her Majesty in Council against any order of the Supreme Court under sub-section (6) and for the purpose of the application of the provisions of the Appeals (Privy Council) Ordinance—

(a) an order made by the Supreme Court under sub-section (6) shall, together with any order of that court under sub-section (7), be deemed to be a final judgment of the Supreme Court in a civil action between the Commissioner and such other party;

(b) the value of the matter in dispute in such civil action shall be deemed to be five thousand rupees:

Provided that where the Board has, under sub-section (2), set forth a higher amount than five thousand rupees as the amount of the tax in dispute, the value of the matter in dispute in such civil action shall be the higher amount so set forth by the Board; and

(c) the Commissioner on any appeal to Her Majesty in Council, shall not be required to make any deposit or pay any fee or furnish any security prescribed by or under the Appeals (Privy Council) Ordinance. ”.

Amendment of section 151 of the principal Act.

10. Section 151 of the principal Act is hereby amended in sub-section (5) of that section, as follows:—

(1) by the insertion, immediately after paragraph (a) of that sub-section, of the following paragraph:—

“ (aa) open and examine any receptacle where any book of account, register, record or other document may be found and make an inventory of any of the articles found therein; ”;

(2) in paragraph (b) of that sub-section, by the substitution, for the words “ take copies of, ”, of the words “ examine and take copies of, ”; and

(3) by the insertion, immediately after paragraph (b) of that sub-section, of the following paragraph:—

“ (bb) count and make a record immediately of the cash found in such place or building; ”.

Amendment of section 152 of the principal Act.

11. Section 152 of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:—

(1) by renumbering of that section as sub-section (1) of that section; and

(2) by the addition, immediately after the re-numbered sub-section (1), of the following sub-section:—

“ (2) Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner by claim made in writing that any person has paid any sum referred to in sub-section (3) of section 122 which is in excess of the sum which he should have paid if such sum were calculated in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (4) of that section, such person shall be entitled to have refunded the amount so paid in excess, if such claim is made within three years of the end of the year of assessment in which the sum referred to in the aforesaid sub-section (3) was paid.”.

12. Section 154 of the principal Act is hereby amended in sub-section (4) of that section by the substitution, for the words “necessary for the performance of any duty under this Part of this Act and the Commissioner may,”, of the words “necessary for the performance of any duty under this Part of this Act or under any such other written law and the Commissioner may,”.

Amendment of section 154 of the principal
Act

13. (1) Section 159 of the principal Act is hereby amended in sub-section (1) of that section as follows:—

Amendment of section 159 of the principal
Act

(a) by the substitution, for the definition of “authorized representative”, of the following new definition:—

“authorized representative” means any individual—

(1) who is authorized in writing by a person to act on his behalf for the purposes of this Act and who is—

(a) in any case—

(i) a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ceylon,

(ii) an accountant approved by the Commissioner,
