01.Introduction

The Commission to Investigate Allegations of Bribery or Corruption has been established by the Anti-Corruption Act No. 9 of 2023, and Section 3(2) of the Act stipulates that the Commission shall be a corporate body with perpetual succession. Furthermore, Section 3(4) of the Act provides that the Commission shall exercise and perform its powers and functions independently without being subject to any direction or other interference proceeding from any other person except a court or tribunal entitled under law to direct or supervise the Commission in the exercise or performance of such powers or functions.

1.1 Composition of the Commission

1.1.1 Members of the Commission

In terms of Section 4(1) of the Anti-Corruption Act, No. 9 of 2023, the President, on the recommendation of the Constitutional Council, appoints three members to the Commission, and one member of whom shall be a person who has expertise, reached eminence and has at least twenty years of experience in law. The other two members shall have expertise, reached eminence, and have at least twenty years of experience in one or more of the following fields.

- I. Investigation of crime and law enforcement
- II. Forensic auditing
- III. Forensic Accounting
- IV. Engineering
- V. International relations and diplomatic services
- VI. Management of public affairs
- VII. Public Administration,

Accordingly,

- Justice Neil Iddawela - Hon. Chairman
(Former Judge of the Court of Appeal and former Deputy Secretary-General of Parliament)
- Mr. Bernard Rajapakse - Hon. Member
(Former Senior Deputy General Manager of the People's Bank)
- President's Counsel Mr. Chethiya Goonesekera - Hon. Member
(Former Additional Solicitor General)

discharge duties as Commission Members from 01st January 2024.

1.1.2 Director General

High Court Judge Ranga Srinath Abeywickrama Dissanayake, the Director General of the Commission to Investigate Allegations of Bribery or Corruption appointed in accordance with Section 17(1) of the Anti-Corruption Act, No. 9 of 2023, has been performing the duties of the office since January 10, 2025.

1.2 Functions of the Commission

1. Conduct fair investigations into complaints regarding offences under the Anti-Corruption Act, No. 9 of 2023, institute legal proceedings in the appropriate courts for complaints that disclose sufficient evidence, and conduct those cases in court.
2. Function as the Central Authority on declarations of assets and liabilities.
3. Implement international conventions, agreements and commitments undertaken by Sri Lanka for the prevention of corruption.
4. Raise public awareness regarding corrupt practices.
5. Implement and regulate anti-corruption policies.
6. Inspect laws, practices and procedures of state institutions to uncover corrupt practices.
7. Provide guidance and directives to public or private institutions to eliminate corruption.
8. Submit recommendations to the government for legal reforms to minimize corruption.
9. Matters related to appointment, promotion, disciplinary control, and dismissal of officers and employees of the Commission.

1.3 Structure of the Commission

The Commission currently has the following organizational structure. The Commission will undergo restructuring to perform the additional duties and responsibilities assigned to it by the Anti-Corruption Act, and the present structure will be revised afterwards.

02. Complaints Received

Bribery or corruption-related complaints can be lodged with the Commission to Investigate Allegations of Bribery or Corruption in the following ways.

- By giving a call to 1954
- Sending a fax message
- Sending an email
- Handing over to the Commission in person
- Sending a named or anonymous letter to the Commission.

An increase can be observed in the number of complaints received up to the fourth quarter of 2025, compared with previous years, as a result of heightened public interest in bribery and corruption following the enactment of the Anti-Corruption Act, No. 9 of 2023, and increased public awareness through programmes conducted island wide by the Prevention Unit.

After the complaints received by the Commission to Investigate Allegations of Bribery or Corruption are registered by the Commission's Secretariat, they are submitted to the Commission, and the Commission will decide not to proceed with the complaints that are not within the scope of the Act or lack sufficient information. The number of complaints received and the number directed for investigation from 2015 to 2025 are as follows.

Number of complaints received and number directed for investigation - from 2015 to 2025

2023	3,431	1,152
2024	4,267	1,105
2025	8,409	569

 Excluding the complaints received for raids

Complaints directed for investigation are forwarded to the Commission's Investigation Division, while matters concerning complaints that require reports from other institutions, or a report from the Legal Division to determine the possibility of initiating an investigation, are handled by the Commission's Secretariat.

How can you contact the Commission?

Hotline : 1954

Email Address : ciaboc_gen@ciaboc.gov.lk

Fax : 0112596360

Postal address : 36, Malalasekara Mawatha, Colombo 07.

You can also lodge a complaint by visiting the Commission.

03. Investigations, Raids and Arrests

The Commission's Investigation Division conducts investigations regarding the offences specified under the Anti-Corruption Act, No. 9 of 2023. In terms of Section 42 of the Act, a preliminary inquiry may be commenced,

- upon receipt of any information
- upon receipt of a complaint
- ex mero motu by the Commission or
- based on any other material received by the Commission.

If the Commission is satisfied that an offence referred to in Section 41 has been committed, the Commission may direct the conduct of an investigation. However, if the Commission is satisfied that reasonable grounds exist to believe that an offence under Section 41 has been committed, the Commission may authorize an investigation without a preliminary inquiry.

3.1 Investigations

Of the complaints received by the Commission during the period from 01.01.2025 to 31.12.2025, the Investigation Division initiated investigations into 569 complaints that were decided to be taken up for investigation and, as at 31.12.2025, investigations were being carried out in respect of 2,559 investigation files, including files received in previous periods.

3.2 Raids

When sufficient information is available regarding incidents involving the acceptance or offering of bribes, and when the complainant is willing to cooperate, Investigation Officers of the Commission conduct raids and arrest suspects red-handed. During the fourth quarter of 2025, 130 such raids were carried out, of which 68 were successful, resulting in the arrest of 84 suspects.

The Secretary to the President issued instructions through Circular PS/SB/Circular/2/2025 dated 18 February 2025 on the establishment of Internal Affairs Units in all Government institutions and designating focal points for identified government institutions. The objectives of establishing the IAUs are:

1. Prevent corruption in the institution and cultivate a culture of integrity.
2. Ensure transparency and accountability in all activities of the institution and ensure public access to information regarding institutional practices and decisions.
3. Promote ethical governance within the institution.
4. Develop a secure and accessible system to encourage reporting misconduct, protect whistleblowers and maintain confidentiality.
5. Support legal enforcement through collaboration with law enforcement agencies and the Commission to Investigate Allegations of Bribery or Corruption (CIABOC).

This initiative will further reinforce the Anti-Corruption Act, No. 9 of 2023, and various other international anti-corruption efforts, including the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC).
