01. Introduction

The Commission to Investigate Allegations of Bribery or Corruption has been established in terms of the provisions of the Anti-Corruption Act No. 9 of 2023, and subsection 3(2) of the Act states that the Commission shall be a corporate body and shall have perpetual succession. Further, subsection 3(4) requires the Commission to exercise and perform its powers and functions independently without being subject to any interference except that of a court or tribunal entitled under the law.

1.1 Composition of the Commission

In terms of subsection 4(1) of the Anti-Corruption Act, No. 9 of 2023, the President on the recommendation of the Constitutional Council appoints three members to the Commission and one member of them shall be a person who has expertise, reached eminence and has at least twenty years of experience in law. The other two members shall have expertise, reached eminence, and have at least twenty years of experience in one or more of the following fields.

- I. Investigation of crime and law enforcement
- II. Forensic auditing
- III. Forensic Accounting
- IV. Engineering
- V. International relations and diplomatic services
- VI. Management of public affairs
- VII. Public Administration,

Accordingly, the three Commission Members,

- Justice Neil Iddawela - Chairman
(Former Judge of the Court of Appeal and former Deputy Secretary-General of Parliament)
- Mr. Bernard Rajapakse - Member
(Former Senior General Manager of the People's Bank)
- President's Counsel Mr. Chethiya Goonesekera - Member (Additional Solicitor General)

assumed duties on 01st January 2024.

1.2 Functions of the Commission

1. Conducting fair investigations into complaints received regarding offences under the Anti-Corruption Act, No. 9 of 2023, filing cases in appropriate courts for complaints where sufficient evidence is uncovered and prosecuting those cases in court.
2. Functioning as the Central Authority for asset and liability declarations.
3. Implementing international conventions, agreements and commitments undertaken by Sri Lanka for the prevention of corruption.
4. Raising public awareness regarding corrupt practices.
5. Implementing and regulating anti-corruption policies.
6. Inspecting the laws, practices and procedures of state institutions to uncover corrupt practices.
7. Providing guidance and directives to public or private institutions to eliminate corruption.
8. Submitting recommendations to the government for legal reforms to minimize corruption.
9. Matters related to the appointments, promotions, disciplinary control, and dismissal of officers and employees of the Commission.

1.3 The Commission to Investigate Allegations of Bribery or Corruption before 1st January 2024

The Commission to Investigate Allegations of Bribery or Corruption was established under Act No. 19 of 1994 and commenced functioning on 15th December 1994 after abolishing the Bribery Commissioner's Department established under the Bribery Act, No. 11 of 1954. The Anti-Corruption Act, No. 9 of 2023 has further empowered the Commission to combat bribery and corruption, and the Commission continues its functions under the new Commission members from 1st January 2024.

1.4 Structure of the Commission

The organizational structure of the Commission at present takes the following form and the Commission is to be restructured to perform the additional functions and responsibilities assigned to it by the Anti-Corruption Act, and the structure of the Commission will be revised after that.

02. Lodging Complaints

Complaints on bribery or corruption can be made to the Commission to Investigate Allegations of Bribery or Corruption in any following manner.
